• CEO • INVESTOR • SPEAKER •

Tyrone W. Rogers is the founder of Elite First Assisting, LLC. He is an exemplary certified surgical assistant, savvy entrepreneur, a God fearing, and devoted father whose penchant for the cutting-edge is demonstrated by the diversity of his constantly evolving portfolio.

As a man of strong character, Tyrone embodies an expansive mindset that has afforded him the necessary instinct to amass a multifaceted portfolio. His holdings include; real estate investment properties in Blue Ridge, GA, a lakefront property in Tennessee, rental properties in Mullins, SC, Atlanta, GA, Cumming, GA, two locations for The Atlanta Comedy Club in Cumming, GA, and at the Atlanta Underground, a wholesale medical supply company, a CBD store, and several restaurant partnerships. Tyrone is Always on the lookout for his next sound investment, and his portfolio is by no means exhaustive.

Tyrone's experience and instinct for leadership aids him into his drive to not only grow businesses, but also to give back to the community. Tyrone has donated money to different organizations for food and essentials and has also stood on the frontline alongside his daughter feeding the homeless at the Atlanta Mission. Through his medical supply company, he is a regular donor of supplies to aid relief efforts in Haiti. Leveraging his own experience, Tyrone mentors younger individuals from all walks of life, and takes a special interest in helping up-and-coming surgical assistants on their career paths and through starting their businesses. His belief that struggle builds character plays an important role in helping others see past their own limitations.

In addition to his other accolades, in 2023, Tyrone is positioned to add speaker and author to his resume. He is gearing up to release a book based largely around the values instilled by his parents, the late William Rogers Sr., and Ruby Mae Rogers, and how he used those values to build an exciting, and incredible life from humble beginnings. He will also begin accepting speaking engagements in the non-profit sector, addressing the needs of the youth and stressing the importance of resilience and building a beneficial network.
